Library News for May

This month we are featuring Debbie Macomber. She is a delightful Christian author who writes romance and contemporary novels. Six of her novels have become made-for-TV movies. She gives positive and uplifting feelings to her readers. Some of her recent books are: The Best is Yet to Come, Must Love Flowers, and It's Better This Way. Please check the rack in the Narthex or the Library today for a good read.

Class of

CONGRATULATIONS
GRADUATES!

Eddie Galliard

As you graduated last semester, where are you currently working?

I am working with Jason Harthoorn doing underground work and loving it!

What are your plans or dreams for your future?

Continuing to work with Jason Harthoorn. I plan on moving out this summer to Sully. I dream of being somewhat successful!

What is your favorite memory of First Baptist Church?

My favorite thing about church is meeting all the people and visiting with everyone.

The Christian Education Board takes this opportunity to thank our Sunday School Teachers for their time, dedication, and leadership. Our weekly Sunday School time is enhanced by your teaching and enables our congregation to continue to learn more about being Christ's disciples, as well as growing in our faith and knowledge of God's Word. Please join us in thanking our stellar teachers: Dennis Dingeman, Ken Hoksbergen, June Hoksbergen, Shannan Duenwald, and Kathy DeVos.

Please join us for a coffeetime in the Fellowship Hall to honor and recognize our Sunday School Teachers.

Thank you for all the prayers, good wishes, and support Dawn and I have received from our wonderful and amazing church family as we continue to work through Dawn's health issues. We are humbled and encouraged by the love and caring this congregation has shown us.

Thank you again,
Bob and Dawn Owens

Thank You!

A big THANK YOU for beautifying our front planting bed goes to Karen Heringer who found and planted five knock-out roses. Thanks also to Alan and Teri Buitenwerf, along with Sheryl Lubberden, for assisting Karen in placing and planting those roses. We will be blessed seeing those beautiful red blooms this summer!
